ANSWER

1. Answer

1

Solution

The error lies in A. We need the base form of a verb to follow the modal verb “can”. Replace “encouraged” with “encourage”.

2. Answer

3

Solution

The C part has an error. The error lies in the incorrect usage of the word ASSURE. Replace “assure” with “ensure”. “Ensure” means “make certain that something will occur.” “Assure” means “convince” or “give confidence to.”

3. Answer

1

Solution

The A part has an error. The error lies in the incorrect usage of the word. Replace “farther” with “further”. The widely accepted rule is to use “farther” when being literal and discussing a physical distance, as in “He went farther down the road.” “Further” is used when discussing a more symbolic distance or to discuss a degree or extent, as in “I wanted to discuss it further, but we didn't have time.

4. Answer

1

Solution

The A part has an error. We need an adjective to modify the noun “weather”. Replace the adverb “unpredictably” with the adjective “unpredictable”.

5. Answer

4

Solution

The D part has an error. We need the base form of a verb to fit in the infinitive construction “to + base form verb”. Also, the verb should be parallel to “study”. Replace “tested” with “test”.

6. Answer

5

Solution

The above sentence is free from error.

7. Answer

3

Solution

The C part has an error. Replace “of” with “for”. If someone makes a demand, then it's "their" demand, so you would use "of". If it is something being demanded, such as goods, then there is a demand for them. In the case of something like resources, you can say demand on them, as you have done. In this case the demand is of the population on resources.

8. Answer

4

Solution

The D part has an error. We need a noun to be modified by the definite article “the”. Replace the adjective “available” with the noun “availability”.

9. Answer

4
