PERFECTION CLASS

CLOZE TESTS

PRE + MAINS

अब ये भी आसान लगेंगे

Nimisha Bansal

Directions: The passage given below contains some blanks wherein the words have been removed. Find the word from the given options that is suitable for each blank and mark that as your answer.

The world stands at the __(A)___ of an investment cycle – out of compulsion. A polarising world bulking up defense budgets and a shift in supply-chains, climate change prompting __(B)__ of existing systems, and AI adoption rewiring everything. Pager attack sends a reaffirming message for localisation. When disruptions strike, the world rebuilds—bigger, broader, and, hopefully, smarter. It's in the darkness of existential threats and _(C)_ compulsions that latent talent of mankind transforms into ideas and inventions. India hit its economic __(D)__ in 1991 when it mortgaged gold reserves. In the heat of that embarrassment, an economy of entrepreneurs was born. In its boyhood, we saw the rise of IT services, in its __(E)__ we saw a wave of e-commerce in all hues becoming unicorns.

The world stands at the __(A)___ of an investment cycle – out of compulsion.

Question 1:

Which of the following best fits in Option A?

(a) dearth

(b) cusp

(c) barbs

(d) vigilance

(e) contract

A polarising world bulking up defense budgets and a shift in supply-chains, climate change prompting __(B)__ of existing systems, and AI adoption rewiring everything.

Question 2:

Which of the following best fits in Option B?

(a) feasible

(b) deliberate

(c) denuded

(d) abject

(e) overhaul

When disruptions strike, the world rebuilds—bigger, broader, and, hopefully, smarter. It's in the darkness of existential threats and _(C)_ compulsions that latent talent of mankind transforms into ideas and inventions.

Question 3:

Which of the following best fits in Option C?

(a) crippling

(b) bolstering

(c) teething

(d) deterring

(e) overthrowing

India hit its economic __(D)__ in 1991 when it mortgaged gold reserves.

Question 4:

Which of the following best fits in Option D?

(a) arbitrate

(b) tactic

(c) anguish

(d) nadir

(e) leash

In its boyhood, we saw the rise of IT services, in its __(E)__ we saw a wave of e-commerce in all hues becoming unicorns.

Question 5:

Which of the following best fits in Option E?

(a) tribulations

(b) catalyst

(c) adolescence

(d) retaliation

(e) breach

Direction: The passage given below contains some blanks wherein the words have been removed. Find the word from the given options that is suitable for each blank and mark that as your answer.

The context of Budget 2025-26 has brought into focus the need to raise the employment intensity of India's economic growth and address the stagnation of income and wage levels. It also simultaneously __(A)__ the debate over the size, status, and potential of India's "middle class". Policymakers have noticed that those belonging to relatively "well-off" socio-economic classes are also seeking tax reliefs from the Budget, __(B)__ themselves as part of the middle class. At the same time, __(C)__ evidence of a "shrinking" of the median and below segments of the middle class is being corroborated by consumption market surveys. Kantar reported that the number of lower middle-class households was down 25% in 2024 compared to 2019, while the affluent ones surged 86%. To be sure, this trend is also __(D)__ in income-tax data — taxpayers with income above Rs 50 lakh a year account for almost half of gross total income reported by all taxpayers in the assessment year (AY) 2023-24. In other words, the shares of the lower income groups in both national income and taxable income are declining. Put __(E)__ , India's middle class isn't well-off, even as the well-off clearly aren't, and cannot be, middle class.

It also simultaneously __(A)__ the debate over the size, status, and potential of India's "middle class".

Question 6:

Which of the following best fits in Option A?

(a) desolated

(b) condemned

(c) tarnished

(d) rekindled

(e) esteemed

Policymakers have noticed that those belonging to relatively “well-off” socio-economic classes are also seeking tax reliefs from the Budget, __(B)__ themselves as part of the middle class.

Question 7:

Which of the following best fits in Option B?

(a) stifling

(b) distant

(c) disguising

(d) impending

(e) conjecture

At the same time, __(C)__ evidence of a "shrinking" of the median and below segments of the middle class is being corroborated by consumption market surveys.

Question 8:

Which of the following best fits in Option C?

(a) anecdotal

(b) incumbent

(c) flagrant

(d) pecuniary

(e) outlandish

To be sure, this trend is also __(D)__ in income-tax data — taxpayers with income above Rs 50 lakh a year account for almost half of gross total income reported by all taxpayers in the assessment year (AY) 2023-24.

Question 9:

Which of the following best fits in Option D?

(a) abstracted

(b) cynical

(c) retracted

(d) preserved

(e) mirrored

Put __(E)__ , India's middle class isn't well-off, even as the well-off clearly aren't, and cannot be, middle class.

Question 10:

Which of the following best fits in Option E?

(a) viciously

(b) flurry

(c) loudly

(d) plainly

(e) fortunately

Direction : A paragraph is given below with 6 blanks. Below 6 different phrases are also given, which will fill these blanks and make a coherent passage. You are required to find the correct place for these phrases and fill in the blanks.

More than three-and-a-half years after the government announced that it would implement a new National Education Policy (NEP), the task of reforming higher education institutions remains a work in progress. The challenge is to __(m)__ to cater to the demands of the modern knowledge economy. Addressing these imperatives requires the higher education regulator, UGC, to not just set standards but also act as an enabler. In the past, the agency has _(n)__ . The draft UGC (Minimum Qualifications for Appointment and Promotion of Teachers and Academic Staff in Universities and Colleges) Regulations 2025 signal a welcome change in the regulator's approach, but only to an extent. Stringent rules that made undergraduate and postgraduate degrees the qualifying _(o)_ . This flexibility in recruitment aligns with the NEP's effort to break disciplinary silos. Equally significant are the provisions that allow senior industry experts and public administrators to apply for a VC's post. Lifting the cap on contract jobs, one hopes, will be used to _(p)__ the talented insecure and beholden to their bosses. However, by strengthening the role of state governors in appointing university heads, the draft rules mark a_(q)__ on institutional autonomy. Worse, they signal once again that the sarkar, in this case, the Centre, is the arbiter of excellence. Opening the VC's post to professionals outside academia could __ (r)__ higher education institutions. The move creates possibilities for collaboration between academia and industry — key at a time the contours of higher education are being reshaped by technology.

1. disappointing departure from the NEP's thrust

2. attracted criticism for its tendency to over-regulate

3. criteria to teach a discipline have been relaxed

4. increase the pool of experts required to helm

5. attract diverse talent and not keep

6. remove persisting deficits and enable universities

More than three-and-a-half years after the government announced that it would implement a new National Education Policy (NEP), the task of reforming higher education institutions remains a work in progress. The challenge is to __(m)__ to cater to the demands of the modern knowledge economy. Addressing these imperatives requires the higher education regulator, UGC, to not just set standards but also act as an enabler. In the past, the agency has _(n)__ . The draft UGC (Minimum Qualifications for Appointment and Promotion of Teachers and Academic Staff in Universities and Colleges) Regulations 2025 signal a welcome change in the regulator's approach, but only to an extent. Stringent rules that made undergraduate and postgraduate degrees the qualifying _(o)_ . This flexibility in recruitment aligns with the NEP's effort to break disciplinary silos. Equally significant are the provisions that allow senior industry experts and public administrators to apply for a VC's post. Lifting the cap on contract jobs, one hopes, will be used to _(p)__ the talented insecure and beholden to their bosses. However, by strengthening the role of state governors in appointing university heads, the draft rules mark a_(q)__ on institutional autonomy. Worse, they signal once again that the sarkar, in this case, the Centre, is the arbiter of excellence. Opening the VC's post to professionals outside academia could __ (r)__ higher education institutions. The move creates possibilities for collaboration between academia and industry — key at a time the contours of higher education are being reshaped by technology.

1. disappointing departure from the NEP's thrust
2. attracted criticism for its tendency to over-regulate
3. criteria to teach a discipline have been relaxed
4. increase the pool of experts required to helm
5. attract diverse talent and not keep
6. remove persisting deficits and enable universities

The challenge is to __(m)__ to cater to the demands of the modern knowledge economy.

Question 16:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place m?

(a) 3

(b) 6

(c) 1

(d) 2

(e) 5

Addressing these imperatives requires the higher education regulator, UGC, to not just set standards but also act as an enabler. In the past, the agency has _(n)__ .

Question 17:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place n?

(a) 5

(b) 4

(c) 2

(d) 3

(e) 1

Stringent rules that made undergraduate and postgraduate degrees the qualifying _(o)_ .

Question 18:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place o?

(a) 3

(b) 6

(c) 1

(d) 5

(e) 4

Lifting the cap on contract jobs, one hopes, will be used to _(p)__ the talented insecure and beholden to their bosses.

Question 19:
Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place p?

(a) 4

(b) 1

(c) 2

(d) 5

(e) 6

However, by strengthening the role of state governors in appointing university heads, the draft rules mark a_(q)__ on institutional autonomy.

Question 20:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place q?

(a) 5

(b) 1

(c) 6

(d) 3

(e) 4

Opening the VC's post to professionals outside academia could __ (r)__ higher education institutions.

Question 21:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place r?

(a) 2

(b) 6

(c) 4

(d) 3

(e) 1

Direction : A paragraph is given below with 6 blanks. Below 6 different phrases are also given, which will fill these blanks and make a coherent passage. You are required to find the correct place for these phrases and fill in the blanks.

The RBI panel on financial inclusion reinforces a traditional and outdated central planning approach to financial inclusion. The vision — in this case, of every adult Indian having a bank account by 2016 — may be a noble one, but it is no different from the paternalistic formulation which says that _(m)__ consumed by each consumer and then licences are given to those who produce those goods. In this case, the good is bank accounts. Each Indian must hold one, we are told, and she must have an Aadhaar card which is linked to it. And society, that is, other consumers, must pay for it. Here, the decision that __(n)__ , or money market mutual funds, is that of the central bank. Society must bear the costs of this vision of the central planner. One important cost is for bank lending rates. The big reason why ordinary lending rates are high is that __(o)__. Ordinary businesses have to suffer because some sectors are being subsidised. Raising the priority sector lending (PSL) requirement would mean that _(p)__. And to the extent that banks suffer losses because of these loans, taxes will need to be raised for ordinary people to restore banks' capital. This will all be done non-transparently. The tax payer will only be told that he is _(q)_ alive. Also, with restricted entry, and with a PSL/inclusion mandate, banks have no incentives to expand anywhere. If a bank wants to expand, say, in Bangalore, because business is booming there, for every three branches it opens there, it will need to open an unprofitable branch in the middle of nowhere. Also, it would need to make half of its new loans to priority sectors. So, it decides that it was not worthwhile to expand. And therefore the financial sector remains small and uncompetitive. Is this really a good development strategy? The report lists business models for banks. This is not the role of the RBI. The RBI should _(r)_ , and not try to carry out the agenda of the UPA or the NAC.

1. ordinary borrowers will now have to pay even more
2. ensure the safety and soundness of banks
3. bank accounts are good and better than mobile wallets
4. paying for the noble cause of keeping public sector banks
5. the state or central planner knows what should be
6. rates are mandated to be low on priority sector loans

The RBI panel on financial inclusion reinforces a traditional and outdated central planning approach to financial inclusion. The vision — in this case, of every adult Indian having a bank account by 2016 — may be a noble one, but it is no different from the paternalistic formulation which says that _(m)__ consumed by each consumer and then licences are given to those who produce those goods. In this case, the good is bank accounts. Each Indian must hold one, we are told, and she must have an Aadhaar card which is linked to it. And society, that is, other consumers, must pay for it. Here, the decision that __(n)__ , or money market mutual funds, is that of the central bank. Society must bear the costs of this vision of the central planner. One important cost is for bank lending rates. The big reason why ordinary lending rates are high is that __(o)__. Ordinary businesses have to suffer because some sectors are being subsidised. Raising the priority sector lending (PSL) requirement would mean that _(p)__. And to the extent that banks suffer losses because of these loans, taxes will need to be raised for ordinary people to restore banks' capital.

This will all be done non-transparently. The tax payer will only be told that he is _(q)_ alive. Also, with restricted entry, and with a PSL/inclusion mandate, banks have no incentives to expand anywhere. If a bank wants to expand, say, in Bangalore, because business is booming there, for every three branches it opens there, it will need to open an unprofitable branch in the middle of nowhere. Also, it would need to make half of its new loans to priority sectors. So, it decides that it was not worthwhile to expand. And therefore the financial sector remains small and uncompetitive. Is this really a good development strategy? The report lists business models for banks. This is not the role of the RBI. The RBI should _(r)_ , and not try to carry out the agenda of the UPA or the NAC.

1. ordinary borrowers will now have to pay even more
2. ensure the safety and soundness of banks
3. bank accounts are good and better than mobile wallets
4. paying for the noble cause of keeping public sector banks
5. the state or central planner knows what should be
6. rates are mandated to be low on priority sector loans

The vision — in this case, of every adult Indian having a bank account by 2016 — may be a noble one, but it is no different from the paternalistic formulation which says that _(m)__ consumed by each consumer and then licences are given to those who produce those goods.

Question 22:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place m?

(a) 3

(b) 6

(c) 1

(d) 2

(e) 5

Here, the decision that __(n)__ , or money market mutual funds, is that of the central bank.

Question 23:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place n?

(a) 5

(b) 4

(c) 2

(d) 3

(e) 1

The big reason why ordinary lending rates are high is that __(o)__. Ordinary businesses have to suffer because some sectors are being subsidised.

Question 24:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place o?

(a) 3

(b) 6

(c) 1

(d) 5

(e) 4

Raising the priority sector lending (PSL) requirement would mean that _(p)__. And to the extent that banks suffer losses because of these loans, taxes will need to be raised for ordinary people to restore banks' capital.

Question 25:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place p?

(a) 4

(b) 1

(c) 2

(d) 5

(e) 6

This will all be done non-transparently. The tax payer will only be told that he is _(q)_ alive.

Question 26:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place q?

(a) 5

(b) 1

(c) 6

(d) 3

(e) 4

The RBI should _(r)_ , and not try to carry out the agenda of the UPA or the NAC.

Question 27:

Which of the following phrases can contextually and grammatically fill the place r?

(a) 2

(b) 6

(c) 4

(d) 3

(e) 1

NIMISHA BANSAL

EXCLUSIVE SUBSCRIPTION

- ACCESS TO ALL COURSES (PERFECTION, GRAMMAR GRANTH, ERRORS
- Live+ Recorded Sessions
- Class PDF's
- Basic To Advance level
- Best Courses Till Date

Price : ~~₹ 2499~~
₹

USE CODE _____

MAKAR SANKRANTI/PONGAL OFFER

TURN DREAMS INTO OFFER LETTERS!

FLAT 40% OFF ON ALL PRODUCTS!

- ONE PREMIUM SUBSCRIPTION
- ALL EDUCATORS EXCLUSIVE
- YES MOCK SUBSCRIPTION
- TARGET BATCH

USE CODE: SAFALTA

OFFER VALID TILL 16TH JANUARY

YOUR BANK JOB IS ONE STEP AWAY!

yes OFFICER

PREMIUM SUBSCRIPTION

ALL EDUCATOR COURSES

ALL BANK EXAM 2024 PRELIMS+MAINS

ENGLISH

QUANT

REASONING

GENERAL AWARENESS

FOUNDATION + HIGH LEVEL COURSES

USE CODE

JOIN TELEGRAM CHANNEL

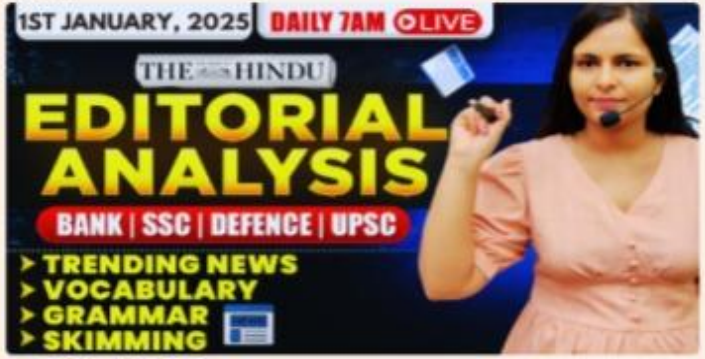
ENGLISH WITH NIMISHA BANSAL

@NimishaMam

English with Nimisha Bansal
452 824 subscribers

YouTube
Editorial Analysis | 1st January, 2025 | Vocab, Grammar, Reading, Skimming | Nimisha Bansal
Editorial Analysis | 1st January, 2025 | Vocab, Grammar, Reading, Skimming | Nimisha Bansal

✅One Premium Subscription
USE CODE - SAFALTA
https...



30K 08:00

Perfection Class: Debunking English Grammar Myths I Perfection I

CONTENT - NIMISHA BANSAL

@mamnimisha

Content- Nimisha Bansal
174 346 subscribers

annotation 1st Jan 2025 2.6K 13:37

Forwarded from
English with Nimisha Bansal
Perfection_Clas...t_Jan_2025.pdf
3.1 MB
Perfection Class Error detection with annotation 1st Jan 2025 2.9K 13:37

Forwarded from
English with Nimisha Bansal
PERFECTION CLA...T January.pdf
34.1 MB
PERFECTION CLASS NOTES 1K 14:14

Forwarded from
English with Nimisha Bansal
EDITORIAL VOC...UARY 2025.pdf
2.7 MB
EDITORIAL VOCAB 1ST JANUARY 2025 1K 14:14