ANSWER

1. Answer

4

Solution

The D part has an error. We need to replace “similarly” with “hene”. "Hence" is used to mean "for this reason." This usage is similar to the word "therefore," meaning that one thing has happened as a consequence of something else that occurred earlier in the sentence or in the preceding sentence. “Similarly” is used to say that something is similar to something else.

2. Answer

1

Solution

The A part has an error. We need an adverb to modify the verb “says”. Replace the adjective “explicit” with the adverb “explicitly”.

3. Answer

4

Solution

The D part has an error. We need the singular form of a verb to agree with the singular subject “attack”. Replace “have” with “has”.

4. Answer

1

Solution

The A part has an error. We need the past participle form of a verb or third form of a verb to fit in the passive voice construction “to + be + verb third form”. Replace “ask” with “asked”.

The A part has an error. We need the second form of a verb, as the sentence talks about an event that happened in the past. Replace “claim” with claimed”.

6. Answer

5

Solution

The above sentence is free from error.

7. Answer

2

Solution

The B part has an error. We need the base form of a verb to fit in the infinitive construction “to + verb base from”. Replace “fled” with “flee”.

8. Answer

1

Solution

The A part has an error. We need an adjective to modify the noun “guest”. Replace the noun “renown” with the adjective “renowned”.

9. Answer

2

Solution

The B part has an error. We need to replace “their” with “there”. “There” is most commonly used to mean “at that point” or “in that place.” “Their” is the possessive form of the third-person plural pronoun “they.” It means “belonging to them.”
