ERROR DETECTION QUESTIONS

Colombia and other South American countries have (a)/ been taking undocumented migrants back from the U.S. in recent years. (b)/ In January, there ~~had been~~ were 90 deportation flights from the U.S. to its southern neighbours, (c)/ eight of which ~~had~~ landed in Colombia. (d)/ No Error.(e)/

① Past point of Time — Simple Past

was/were + v3 / v2 | did + v1 | was/were had

② the US / UK / UAE

But what turned a regular exercise into (a)/ a controversy was the handling of the deportation by the Trump (b)/ administration — the use of (c)/ military planes, which angered the Colombians. But Mr. Trump does not seem to care.(d)/ No Error.(e)/

e

Mr. Petro also raised concerns about the (a)/ way migrants treated by the U.S. Earlier, Brazil had also raised complains of (b)/ "degrading treatment" of its deported citizens. They were handcuffed, and some of them were not given (c)/ water or allowed to use the washroom during the flight, according to Brazilian officials. (d)/ No Error.(e)/

Subject + Verb

Verb

complain - Verb -

practise

advise

affect

believe

शिकायत करना

आश्वासन

सलाह देना

प्रभाव डालना

विश्वास करना

Verb Noun

complaint

practice

advice

effect

belief

effect

Verb

achieve

Past economic – related to economy

He wanted to make an example of Colombia so that other neighbours a)/ will not challenge his handling of the mass deportation. He may forced (b)/ Colombia to backtrack for now, using America's economical muscle, but this kind of coercion could backfire in the (c)/ long run in a region which America has always tried to maintain it's geopolitical hegemony. ((d)/ No Error.(e)/ would

where

its

it is it has
it was
may have been forced

may force – Active
V2

may have forced – Active

may be forced – Passive Voice

economical – thrifty, frugal
not expensive

And the inhumane conditions in which hundred (a)/ of tens of migrants are being deported everyday (b)/ has a blot on America's tall claims of protecting human rights.(c)/ A better way of handling these crisis is through diplomacy. (d)/ No Error.(e)/

Indefinite Unit

- Plural Form
- Ascending Order

tens hundreds thousands lakhs ...

these crises

Static

Ram and Shyam

com

Instead of imposing his will on other countries(a)/ through threats of tariffs and sanctions, Mr. Trump could use the diplomatic (b)/ channel, sought consensus and then implemented his policy in a much more cordial (c)/ way. But for Mr. Trump, alas, coerce is the first resort.(d)/ No Error.(e)/

seek

verb

Coercion

Mr Trump could — use / seek / implement

much+Comp
much better
much more beautiful

3

be+v^3 v^1
have+v^3 be have+been+v^3

A good starting point to explain these issues is the exceptionally complicated regulatory (a)/ architecture under the Constitution for these alcoholic tinctures,which are liquid (b)/ extracts of herbs dissolved in alcohol. As per Schedule VII of the Constitution, (c)/ only States can enact legislation in relation to public health and the taxation of alcohol. (d)/ No Error.(e)/

Sub Verb Adv Adj Adj N V3 V1

Sing Verb

The exception [to this rule of taxation] is if the alcohol is Simple Present allows meant for medicinal (a)/ purposes,Entry 84 of List I ~~allowed~~ the Union to decide the rate of taxation.In the pre-Goods and Services Tax (GST) era, (b)/ alcohol [for medicinal

Adj

preparation] was taxed at a tiny 4% under the now repeal (c)/

Medicinal and Toilet Preparations (Excise Duties) Act,

1955.(d)/ No Error.(e)/

repealed

Noun

repeal - V

V^2+ing - Adj

V^3 - Adj

is+V^3

Simple Present

Passive Voice

Fact

Post the 101st Constitutional amendment which paved the way for the GST, the issue of taxation of(a)/ alcohol was meant for medicinal purposes is not clearly since the exception created for alcohol (b)/ meant for medicinal purposes is no longer mentioned in Entry 84. Nevertheless, the Union has prescribed a 18% tax slab for alcohol (c)/ meant for medicinal purposes, which is still significant lower than State taxes on alcoholic beverages. (d)/ No Error.(e)/

Noun

V3

clear

Sub

V3

V3

Verb

Adj

significantly

The third aspect [of these regulatory architectures] are (a)/ that drugs are on the Concurrent list, which means that both the Union as well as States can enact law but since the Drugs and Cosmetics (b)/ Act, 1940 is the Union law lying down quality standards for homoeopathic products, (c)/ States need presidential approval for State-specific amendments.(d)/ No Error.(e)/

Sing is and laying

lying	लेटना (v3) lie	lied (v2)	lied (v3)
लेटाना	lie	lay	lain
लिटाना	lay	laid	laid

lay down
formulate frame

This complex regulatory architecture has mean (a)/ that manufacturers of these homoeopathic alcoholic tinctures have historically (b)/ immune from any form of quality regulation or taxation by States despite of having a direct impact on public (c)/ health which again is the responsible of States, as per List II of Schedule VII. (d)/ No Error.(e)/

meant

been

responsibility

Moreover, due to the difference in taxation rates for (a)/ alcoholic tinctures sold as homoeopathic remedies and alcoholic beverages, (b)/ alcoholic tinctures manufactured by the homoeopathic industry are (c)/ affordable than alcoholic beverages.(d)/ No Error.(e)/

more

Adv

Adj – CD

→ These books written by me will improve your English

H.V

Verb

For a less discerning consumer of alcohol whom solely aim is to get intoxicated, these alcoholic tinctures are the (a)/ perfect substitute for alcoholic beverages specially since many of these tincture (b)/ contains a very high volume of alcohol. The Drugs and Cosmetics (c)/Act permits alcoholic tinctures for homoeopathy to contain 12% alcohol by volume. (d)/ No Error.(e)/

No. of errors

nimishaa1710@gmail.com