ANSWER1.Ans: (D)

Explanation: The sentence stresses the need for long-term and meaningful policy actions to address the environmental crisis. The correct word must convey lasting and significant change.

(A) intervention – fits: means "an act to improve a situation," suitable for policy action.

(B) reform – fits: means "making changes to improve a system," appropriate here.

(C) overhaul – fits: means "a thorough examination or renovation," which fits the context of major change.

(D) interim – does NOT fit: means "temporary or provisional," which contradicts the idea of lasting change.

2.Ans: (E)

Explanation: The sentence discusses the different ways algorithms can affect decisions traditionally made by humans, highlighting potential ethical dilemmas. The correct word must reflect some form of involvement or impact on decision-making.

(A) override – fits: means "to overrule or replace," indicating algorithms taking control over decisions.

(B) influence – fits: means "to have an effect on," implying algorithms affect decisions without fully controlling them.

(C) dictate – fits: means "to prescribe authoritatively," showing algorithms commanding decisions.

(D) facilitate – fits: means "to make easier," suggesting algorithms assist in decision-making processes.

(E) All are correct – fits: since all options describe plausible ways algorithms can affect decisions, all fit appropriately.

3.Ans: (A)

Explanation: The sentence emphasizes strengthening and improving national security frameworks. The correct word must imply enhancing or reinforcing these frameworks.

(A) embark – does NOT fit: means "to begin or start something," which doesn't directly imply strengthening or improving existing frameworks.

(B) bolster – fits: means "to strengthen or support," appropriate in this context.

(C) fortify – fits: means "to strengthen or protect," suitable here.

(D) upgrade – fits: means "to improve or raise to a higher standard," fitting the context.

4.Ans: (D)

Explanation: The sentence emphasizes efforts that promote healing and unity in societies recovering from conflict. The correct word must reflect actions that build trust and engagement.

(A) reconciliatory – fits: means "intended to restore friendly relations," appropriate here.

(B) inclusive – fits: means "including all groups and people," suitable in this context.

(C) therapeutic – fits: means "having healing effects," applicable metaphorically to social healing.

(D) divisive – does NOT fit: means "causing disagreement or hostility," which contradicts the goal of stability and unity.

5.Ans: (C)

Explanation: The sentence highlights that the philosopher's argument is still actively involved in debates, suggesting ongoing engagement and stimulation rather than ending discussions.

(A) shape – fits: means "to influence or determine the nature of," which supports ongoing impact.

(B) invigorate – fits: means "to give strength or energy to," indicating active engagement.

(C) conclude – does NOT fit: means "to bring to an end," which contradicts the idea of ongoing debates.

(D) provoke – fits: means "to stimulate or incite," suitable for sparking debates.

6.Ans: (D)

Explanation: The sentence points to a negative outcome—frequent flooding—that results from inefficiencies in the drainage system. The correct word must indicate continuation or consequence of these problems.

(A) culminate – fits: means "to reach a climax or result in," appropriate for describing flooding as an outcome.

(B) manifest – fits: means "to become evident or obvious," suitable here.

(C) persist – fits: means "to continue or endure," fitting the context of ongoing issues.

(D) alleviate – does NOT fit: means "to reduce or ease," which contradicts the sentence implying flooding continues despite problems.

7.Ans: (B)

Explanation: The sentence emphasizes positive goals like increasing community participation and improving experiences. The correct word must reflect encouraging or promoting these outcomes.

(A) foster – fits: means "to encourage or promote," appropriate here.

(B) deter – does NOT fit: means "to discourage or prevent," which contradicts the positive aims of the policy.

- (C) engender – fits: means "to cause or give rise to," suitable for promoting participation.
(D) instigate – fits: means "to initiate or provoke," appropriate in encouraging action.

8.Ans: (B)

Explanation: The sentence discusses the positive impact of policy reforms on handloom weaving revival. The correct word must indicate enhancement or support.

- (A) galvanized – fits: means "to stimulate or excite into action," suitable here.
(B) impeded – does NOT fit: means "to obstruct or hinder," which contradicts the idea of positive policy impact.
(C) rejuvenated – fits: means "to make young or fresh again," appropriate in this context.
(D) augmented – fits: means "to increase or enhance," fitting the meaning.

9.Ans: (A)

Explanation: The sentence describes a tone that carefully balances firmness and diplomacy. The correct word must convey moderation and balance.

- (A) unequivocal – does NOT fit: means "leaving no doubt; absolute," which implies firmness without nuance, conflicting with the idea of a balanced tone.
(B) measured – fits: means "carefully considered or deliberate," appropriate for balanced tone.
(C) tempered – fits: means "moderated or softened," suitable here.
(D) judicious – fits: means "showing good judgment," fitting the context of diplomacy.

10. Ans: (C)

Explanation: The sentence indicates that the ruling's impact is ongoing and influential. The correct word must reflect a lasting presence or continued effect.

- (A) resonate – fits: means "to have a lasting or continuing effect," appropriate here.
(B) persist – fits: means "to continue firmly or obstinately," suitable for ongoing influence.
(C) wane – does NOT fit: means "to decrease or diminish," which contradicts the idea of continuing impact.
(D) reverberate – fits: means "to echo or continue to have effect," fitting the context.
