ANSWER1.Answer*A*Solution

The A part has an error. We need an adverb to modify the verb “recommend”. Replace the adjective “urgent” with the adverb “urgently” to make the sentence correct.

2.AnswerB*Solution

The B part has an error. The sentence contains an error with the word "limit" which should be "limited." The verb should be in its past participle form to match the structure "is not selective or limited." "Limited" is the correct form of the word to maintain parallel structure with "selective." "Limit" is the base form, but since it is following "is," the past participle form is required.

3.AnswerC*Solution

The C part has an error. The sentence contains an error with the word "then," which should be "than." "Then" refers to time or sequence. "Than" is used for comparisons. “Rather” will take “than” with it when making comparisons.

4.AnswerA*Solution

The A part has an error. We need the plural form of a noun to fit in the construction “ONE + OF + THE + PLURAL NOUN”. Replace “test” with “tests”.

5.Answer

CSolution

The C part has an error. We need to replace "few" with "little". The word 'few' refers to countable nouns and is used with the plural form. 'Little' is generally used to refer to non-countable nouns and is used with the singular form. Here, RECOURSE is an uncountable noun.

6.AnswerA*Solution

The A part has an error. The sentence contains an error in the prepositional phrase "on early January." The correct preposition should be "in" instead of "on," as the preposition "on" is used for specific days (e.g., "on January 5th"), while "in" is used for months and seasons.

7.AnswerC*Solution

The C part has an error. The sentence contains an error with the word "their" which should be "there." "Their" is a possessive pronoun used to indicate ownership. "There" is used to indicate existence or a place.

8.AnswerE*Solution

The above sentence is grammatically correct.

9.AnswerD*Solution

The D part has an error. We need the second form of a verb, as the sentence talks about an event that happened in the past. Replace “rise” with “rose”.

10. Answer
